I have approved this book for my son's/daughter's book report.

Parent Signature: _____

Outline

I. Who wrote the book and why? What is its purpose? To whom is it written?

II. What was the main point of the book? Give several supporting sub-points or details

III. What was the most interesting or practical thing you learned? Would you recommend this book to others? Why or why not? (Give your opinion)

When you have finished your outline, write one paragraph for each section. Try to be clear and concise. Use one of each dress-up (sv, qa, w/w, www, ly) and one of each sentence opener (2, 3, 4, <4>, 5, 6, T) in your paper. Mark them properly, underlining dress-ups and putting the number of the sentence opener used, directly before the sentence. (Times New Roman, 14 pt., double-spaced) Include your name, the date, and a title. (The title should be the title of the book you read.) Hand in your finished report with this paper, signed by a parent.
